

Colorado Walk Sjögren's Experts

Dr. Mehrnaz Maleki Fischbach, MD
National Jewish Health, Rheumatology – Denver, CO

Dr. Mehrnaz Maleki-Fischbach is a rheumatologist and current Division Chief of Rheumatology at National Jewish Health (NJH). She is also NJH's Director of the Sjögren's and Scleroderma programs and the Director of the Rheumatology Clinic. Dr. Maleki-Fischbach also has a strong background in clinical research and clinical trials. She is committed to improving the diagnosis, treatment, and outcomes of Sjögren's and to fostering a culture of excellence, innovation, and compassion. In addition, Dr. Maleki Fischbach was honored to be selected as a Denver 2024 Top Doctor.

Dr. S. Lance Forstot
Colorado Eye Consultants – Littleton, CO

Dr. Lance Forstot, Ophthalmologist & Founding Partner of Colorado Eye Consultants, is recognized as a Top Doctor in Dry Eye and Ophthalmology. He served as a member of the Sjögren's Foundation's National Board of Directors for several years, including as the Board Chair. He has also served as the President of the Contact Lens Association of Ophthalmologists and Professor at the University of Colorado School of Medicine and is a Medical Director of Rocky Mountain Lions Eye Bank. Dr. Forstot was also selected as a 2024 Denver Top Doctor.

Dr. Kyle R. Griffith, DMD
Denver Tech Dentistry – Denver, CO

Dr. Kyle Griffith is a Dentist and Partner at Denver Tech Dentistry. He also serves as an Associate Professor at CU School of Dental Medicine. While previously on Active Duty, with the US Army, he conducted research and treatment of high caries risk patients, supervised other dentists and was awarded top achievement medals. He has a special focus and passion for Sjögren's patients.

